March 2018 Newsletter

Welcome to a new season

How the weather can change in just a few days! Last week we had wind chill temperatures of -15 degrees, roads closed with drifting snow and campers having to postpone their visits. With temperatures now nearer 10 degrees, we are heading towards Easter with more positive thoughts and look forward to seeing a lot of new faces over the coming months. We do still have availability for Easter.

Further enhancements for visitors

We have been very busy during the closed season and regulars will notice quite a few changes around the park. One major service update is that we are now providing a Free wifi service for visitors.

AA Gold Pennant Award

In February, the AA invited us to the caravan & camping awards presentation at the NEC. John was able to attend and is seen here receiving our Gold Pennant award. This is now our third gold AA award.

Holiday Cottage

The cottage is already booking well, so check the web site for availability and book early.
